

Act 1 Theatre Newsletter

Vol 23 Issue 9 September 2021

Notes from the President

Seems we keep on changing. Just when Margie Wallace got bookings under control she has made a big move to Gympie. Congratulations to her and our best wishes. She has a larger block and will be a new ride on mower apprentice.

Some great news. Kymberley Tauber, a newbie who was part of Hacienda del Toro has agreed to take over bookings. Thanks Kymberley. Will be a time of learning. Who knows the phone may even ring.

Stan Wisniowiecki has also come on board to manage our website. Welcome to Kymberley and Stan.

We are eagerly awaiting Scotland Road directed by Steve Pearton. Set is almost done. Very stark, suiting the mood of the play. Most interested to see this one in October (note new dates).

Sad news about Relatively Speaking, our scheduled final play for 2021. It looks like the director may not be able to proceed so we are looking at putting together a special Christmas event for December. Keep watching this space.

Yours in theatre.

Terry

'Titanic' - the only word spoken by a young woman rescued from an iceberg towards the end of the 20th century, dressed in clothes from almost a hundred years earlier.

Who is she? What is her connection to the doomed liner and the fateful events of April 1912? What is driving her enigmatic interrogator as he tries to break down her story? What and where is Scotland Road?

This intriguing drama will keep you guessing until the very end. Bookings now open at www.trybooking.com.au .

(Note new dates, one week later than originally scheduled. See attached flyer to print.)

Pine Rivers Show Art Prize
